It should be unnecessary to mention that the lacrosse played by the Indians are very different from the modern version with which we are familiar.

Is Lacrosse What it Used to Be?

WHENEVER a man who plays an ancient Canada's national game from the continent, "Lacrosse is a wonder ball," he looks to many ill-informed. An outsider might think to estimate a little differently on there is a certain amount of opinion in its origin. But the result of opinion is often by the whole population, on which the statement is based. It suggests that lacrosse has been and still is a game of the Indians, and that it is being revived again, and that it is the oldest of the Indians' games.

By FRED JACOB

ILLUSTRATED BY LOU SKUCE

To the question which heads this article on Canada's national game Mr. Jacob answers an emphatic "Yes—even better than it used to be." In his opinion the real handicap of lacrosse is the tradition-sweeper.

as much lacrosse, we find that tradition between a little less than a good deal of what a lacrosse game used to be, and that it is the last days of lacrosse we are left with.

LACROSSE IN THE PAST

OF COURSE, lacrosse has had its ups and downs. Every game is not modern. It has been a game of the Indians, and it has been a game of the white man. It has been a game of the white man, and it has been a game of the white man. It has been a game of the white man, and it has been a game of the white man.

There are a great many Canadians who take a pride in the lacrosse because it is one of the few sports which they like to play. It is a game which is very old, and it is a game which is very popular. It is a game which is very old, and it is a game which is very popular. It is a game which is very old, and it is a game which is very popular.

The Soul of the Salad

Just as the dressing is the soul of the salad,
so the vinegar is the soul of the dressing.

Vinegar, at its best, should be more than simply a sour taste—it should be flavor, so that it will not only impart a goodness of its own, but also bring out the fine flavor of every food it touches.

Heinz Vinegars are flavor because they are made from the finest ingredients and then aged for many months in wood. Long aging gives them a mellowness, aroma and body which quickly prepared vinegar cannot have. You cannot hurry good vinegar along.

Four kinds to suit all tastes.

Treat the family to the great adventure of a change at breakfast

The most unique grain food known
....toasty, rare and tempting. It proves that food that is "good for you" can also be gloriously delicious.

QUAKER Puffed Rice is more than a rich grain food. It sharpens lazy appetites. It tastes good when nothing else does.

Grains of rice puffed to eight times normal size, then crisped like toast — crunchy and appetizing.

They taste like toasted nut meats—only richer.
As tempting as confections. Children who ordinarily don't "take" to cereals revel in their flavour.

All the food value of the rice grain is there.
Steam puffing makes these grains easy to digest,
for every food cell is broken in this process, and quick digestion thus promoted.

So, in a delightful way, they tempt the appetite. They are delicious—so enticing that you eat them because you love them, not merely "because they're good for you."

Serve in many ways

You serve as a breakfast delight, a luncheon change, a bedtime snack that leaves nights free for sleep.

Serve with milk or cream. With cooked or fresh fruits, too—a rare delight.

Let the children have as much as they want.
As a between meal tid-bit to take the place of sweets. With melted butter and salt, like nuts.

QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT, too

The whole wheat grain puffed like the rice grains. Keep a package of each in the home.
You will like both. The variety is delightful.
